

1. What is Excel?

A) excel is a spreadsheet tool of Microsoft which is used to store the data in large amount and doing calculation, and analyze the data

2. What is a workbook?

A) a workbook is a excel file which contains one or more than one worksheets

3. What is a spreadsheet?

A) spreadsheet is a grid of rows and columns which is used to store and manage the data. Each sheet is called worksheet or spreadsheet

4. When was Excel developed?

A) 1985

5. Why is Excel used?

A) to store large amount of data

Data analysis

Calculation using formulas

Creating charts and reports

Manages the large set of data

6. What is the difference between Excel and MySQL?

A) excel is a spreadsheet

The data size in excel is small to medium

It is used to analysis,reports

We can perform operation using formulas

MySQL:--

It is database

It stores very large amount of data

The usage is for data storage and management

The language is sql

7. What are the uses of Excel?

A) Budgeting Data entry Data visualization (charts) Financial analysis Reporting Inventory tracking

8. How often are Excel versions updated?

A) major version every 2-3 years

Frequent updates is monthly /regular updates

9. When did Excel start?

1985

10. Who introduced Excel?

microsoft

11. What was the first version of Excel?

Excel1.0

12. How can we check the Excel version?

First version: Excel 1.0 Released for Mac (1985) Windows version came later in 1987